

Spray Nozzle System & I n j e c t i o n Nozzle System

Spray Nozzle is a device which is used for injection of different chemicals in pipelines. For some chemicals this is to provide an injecting connection and in others like Methanol injection, there is not only a need for injection but also Spraying inside the pipeline. Green Mile Co. is a professional manufacturer of lances and injectors for different applications.

